

BPS Psychology of Women Section
Annual Conference
10 – 12 July 2013

Cumberland Lodge, The Great Park, Windsor, UK

Citizenship
Sexualities
The Politics of Women's Work
Feminism & The Life Course

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 2013

Posters
(Wednesday 6.15-7.00pm, Drawing Room)

R. Fowle – How do visual aids stimulate storytelling about embodiment and breastfeeding in narrative analysis?

E. M. Hancock & J. Montague – Recapitulating Past Experiences: A Discursive Analysis

S. Ihenacho & B. Brooks-Gordon – Growing up with Female Genital Mutilation (FGM): The impact and experience

J. M. Ling – Let's talk about sex – A Critical Narrative Analysis of heterosexual couples' experiences of low sexual desire

M. Papanikou & A. Kotsopoulou – Women with Osteoporosis: The effect of medicine on stigmatization anxiety

A. Player & G. Randsley De Moura – Sponsorship in Academia: Getting Women to the Top

C. Sandamas & K Mackenzie-Davey – Women at the Top – the Pipeline Challenge. Looking beyond the 'transition to motherhood and return to work decision' fixation: the significance of the employee-organization-relationship during the early years of motherhood

K. W. Stobart – Revisiting the midlife crisis - A women's perspective

S. Symons - Discursive constructions of UK swingers' self-identities and practices in a culturally gendered mononormative context (POWS Undergraduate Prize Winner)

E. L. Turley – Using imaginative variation as an innovative method to encourage description and capture nuanced differences in accounts during participant interviews

Wednesday 10th July 2013

1:30	Registration (Tapestry Hall)
2:00	Welcome: Rebecca Lawthom (POWS Chair)
2:15-4:15 Session 1	Individual Papers: The Politics of Women's Work	Individual Papers: Women's Weight &amp; the Politics of Fatness	Individual Papers: Marginalised Women, Marginalised Voices	Individual Papers: Children, Childhood &amp; the Family
	Room: Flitcroft Chair: Rebecca Lawthom	Room: Sandby Chair: Maxine Woolhouse	Room: Hodgson Chair: Jo Neale	Room: Library Chair: Helen Owton
	J. Ashby & C. Horrocks - 'Family flexible' working: flexible for who and at what cost?	O. J. Monson – Gender matters; a multimodal discourse analysis of work and winning on The Biggest Loser	B. L. Farrant & C. Boserman – An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis of therapists' experiences of working with prisoners	C. I. Capewell - Mothers and professionals: A phenomenological study of living with a child intermittent hearing loss
	G. J. Gould & D. Brown – Quotas are Not Enough to Eradicate Masculine Boardrooms: A Review of the Social Construction of 'Women' and 'Leaders'	F. G. Holland & K. Peterson – Stepping off the "treadmill of fret": An interpretative phenomenological analysis of healthy, non-dieting women who live above the medically defined acceptable weight	T. Walker, K. Abel, J. Shaw, C. Roberts, & C. Murphy – Self-Harm and Female Prisoners – How can we help?	N. Ercan – Playing "Gender Equality" with Children
	L. O. Thompson & B. Rickett – 'Designer Workers': Analyzing gendered discourses in two UK Police publications	K. E. Nicholls, S. Riley, D. Gimlin, C. Scharff, & P. Sechi - 'Fat Talk': Negotiating dilemmas of femininity	A. Bareham & A. Locke – Visualising marginalised voices: Using photo-elicitation methods to research homeless women and hostel worker identities	J. E. M. Callaghan & J. Sixsmith – Growing up with Violence: Discourses of Childhood in Situations of Domestic Abuse
	R. Lawthom, C Kagan & S. Baines – The politics of migrant women's work: experience of forced labour amongst UK based Chinese Migrant Workers	S. L. Smailes - Dieting as neoliberal, patriarchal and social constructed requirement of female citizenship	N. Rana, N. Hunt, & S. Thomas – Bliss in Disguise: Trauma and Growth in the Lives of Homeless Women in India
4:15-4:30	Tea &amp; Coffee in the Bar
4.30-5.30	Keynote speaker: Elisabeth Kelan – Unspeakable Inequalities: The Politics of Gender at Work (Flitcroft)
5.30-6.15	Break – Take a break to relax before the evening's events
6:15-7:00	POWS Welcome Reception &amp; Poster Session with wine & nibbles ( Ante Room )
7:00-7:30	Pre-dinner Tour of Cumberland Lodge (Meet at Drawing Room)
7:30 -9:00	Dinner - Followed by Drinks &amp; Chat with Open Mic (9.00-late, in the Bar)

Thursday 11th July 2013 – Morning Part 1

8:00 onwards	Registration (Tapestry Hall)
8:15-9:00	Breakfast
9:00-10:30 Session 2	Individual Papers: Citizenship	Individual Papers: Disability, Gender &amp; Identity	Individual Papers: Womanhood &amp; Manhood in the Media	Individual Papers: Feminist Approaches to Violence
	Room: Flitcroft Chair: Jane Callaghan	Room: Sandby Chair: Nollaig Frost	Room: Hodgson Chair: Jemma Tosh	Room: Library Chair: Helen Owton
	L. Blanchard – Fridge magnets, women and peace: negotiating citizenship according to human vs strategic agency	E. Agustsdottir - Doing gender as political action from the position of Disabled Lesbian	L. A. Ward & J. E. M. Callaghan – Military ‘Manliness’: The Construction of Masculinity and Emotional Expression within Ministry of Defence Advertising Campaigns	R. Khalid – Perceived Threat of Violence and Coping Strategies of Women in Pakistan
	C. Macleod & L. Vincent – Introducing a critical pedagogy of sexual and reproductive citizenship: extending the ‘framework of thick desire’	F. Haraldsdottir – “How is she gonna hold the baby?": The fear of the future dilemma of being a disabled feminist mother	A. Locke – ‘Stay-at-home-dads’, masculinity and parenting: Representations of ‘fatherhood’ in the British Press	J. Neale – Professionals’ Responses to Women in Abusive Relationships: Valued Support or Collusion with Perpetrators?
		D. Rodriguez – “Even though I always wanted to be a mum, it’s not all I wanted to be.” Experiences of mothering more than one child, who are and are not identified as having a disability	B. Rickett, G. Craig, & L. O. Thompson – “Bad wigs and Bed wetters”: Constructions of gender and class in trans-popular discourse	S. Soans – Keep them in their culture: Gendered violence and the role of the exotic
10:30 -10.45	Tea &amp; Coffee in the Bar

10.45-12:15	Craftivism Workshop – Facilitated by Kirsty Budds & Paula Singleton ( Flitcroft )
12:15-1:00	Lunch
1:00-3:00 Session 3	Symposium: Sexual Citizenship: Performing and policing practices and identities	Individual Papers: Women’s Bodies	Individual Papers: Constructing ‘Good’ Mothers	Individual Papers: Young Women, Religion, Culture, &amp; Identity
	Room: Flitcroft Convenor: M. Gurevich	Room: Sandby Chair: Bridgette Rickett	Room: Hodgson Chair: Kirsty Budds	Room: Library Chair: Jo Neale
	M. G. Gurevich – (In)coherent Identities: Epistemic Dilemmas, Queer Theory, and Bisexuality  A. Vasilovsky – Aesthetic as genetic: “Gaydar” and lesbian and gay psychology’s minoritizing discourse	V. Braun & G. Terry – Does body hair removal remain a domain of embodied gendered difference? A report from Aotearoa New Zealand	G. A. Yarwood – Working mothers, vomiting children and cancelled childcare – Disrupting gendered care/work arrangements	I. Ali, A. Locke, & G. McMahon – Experiences of life in Britain: Young British Muslim women negotiating their identities
	S. Cosma, A. Vasilovsky, S. Fitzpatrick, & M. Gurevich – Pride without politics: Hegemonic identity hierarchies in popular gay magazines	F. G. Holland, J. Montague, & S. Archer – ‘Do you mean I’m not whole?’: An Interpretative Phenomenological analysis of younger women’s experiences of electing to not undergo breast reconstruction after mastectomy following breast cancer	M. Woolhouse, K. Day, B. Rickett, & K. Milnes – ‘I do make as many meals myself as I can’: Constructing the ‘ideal mother’ through classed and gendered discourses around food and eating	A. Kayaoglu – Returning to home: The case of young educated Turkish women
	N. Cormier – Death by dichotomy?: Implications of category-specificity of sexual arousal research for bisexuality as a socio-political entity  A. Brown-Bowers & M. Gurevich – Sexual coaches and courtesans: Female partners of men undergoing sexual rehabilitation treatment following prostate cancer	S. Soans – Miss Rita and her sisters – the othering of religious minorities and their women in India	K. M. Budds – “A good mum is someone who kind of stimulates their child and does lots of things with them and interacts with them all the time”: Exploring women’s adherence and resistance to intensive parenting ideology	I. Hussain, S. Johnson, & A. Mdee – “If I get married, she can work if she wants but I would prefer it if she didn’t”
		L. Scott, R Capdevila, & J. M. McAvoy – Families with young single mothers negotiating maternal moralities	P. Yadav – White Saree – Transforming Widowhood

Thursday 11th July 2013 Afternoon - Workshop Sessions

	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop
	Room: Flitcroft	Room: Sandby	Room: Hodgson	Room: Library	Room: Drawing Room
3:00-4:00 Session 4	J. Callaghan (Editor, POWS Review ) & R. Capdevila (Editor, Feminism &amp; Psychology ) - Publishing feminist research: opportunities and challenges	A. S. Perl – Women and Mindfulness: How to Create Movement for Change whilst Safely Standing Still	P. Nicolson – Life at work: the psychology of gender, power and organisation	H. Owton – Poetry Inquiry: An analysis workshop	N. J. McGowan - Exploring feminist issues through Dramatic techniques
4:00-4:30	Tea &amp; Coffee in the Bar
4:30-5:30	OCCUPY POWS – We will occupy Flitcroft to share information on feminist projects and activism #OccupyPOWS (Flitcroft)
5:30-6:15	POWS AGM – ALL WELCOME
6.30-7.00	POWS Postgraduate Prize Winner: Helen Winter - ADHD: 'Because You're Worth It' The Marketisation of ADHD to Adult Women (Drawing Room)
7.00-7.45	Feminism &amp; Psychology Wine Reception (Tapestry Hall)
7:45-9:00	Dinner
9:00-late	Live Comedy with Bethany Black (Drawing Room) followed by an informal disco

Friday 12th July 2012

8:00 onwards	Registration
8:15-9:00	Breakfast
9:30-11:30 Session 5	Symposium: Forbidden Feelings: Theorising Emotions in Research and the Workplace	Individual Papers: Sex &amp; Sexualities	Individual Papers: Gender &amp; Health	Individual Papers: Feminist Methodologies
	Room: Flitcroft Convenor: G. M. Craig	Room: Sandby Chair: Jemma Tosh	Room: Hodgson Chair: Paula Singleton	Room: Library Chair: Sandra Roper
	G. Craig – “I could just say what I want to say and I could just have a friend as well”: Navigating the emotional landscape of research relationships  J. Rayment – “You’re supposed to be supporting them and you’re blubbing”: Midwifery as emotion work  K. Waddington – Have you heard? Gossip, power and emotion at work	V. Clarke, D. Gray, & N. Hayfield - “They walk among us!”: The meanings of bisexuality for young people	R. P. Watts, S. Linke, E. Murray, & C. Barker – Hazardous drinking in young professional women: their ‘relationship with alcohol’	J. M. McAvoy – Ethical Problems in the intersubjectivity of paired interviews: from effective elicitation technique to affectivities of threat
		O. Parslow & P. Hegarty – Lived Outness and family of origin relationships: Young lesbians’ future expectations	J. Spiers, J. A. Smith, R. Horne, & E. Poliquin – An interpretative phenomenological analysis of issues around treatment for HIV+, non-drug-adherent West African women living in London	H. Owton - A better life: The student-parent experience
		N. Gavey & A. Antevska - Men and the dilemmas of sexist pornography	L. R. Rubin – Constructing “good parents” in the context of “bad genes”: Attitudes about preimplantation genetic screening among individuals with hereditary cancer risk	S. L. Roper, R. Capdevila, & S. Crafter – Talking to my Sister: Reflections on some challenges and opportunities for feminist research
J. Tosh - Fatal Fantasies: What does the Desire to Die Mean for Feminist Psychology?		J. Youell, J. Parkes, & J. E. M. Callaghan – Home is here and gone away: constructions, meanings and sense of home for couples living with dementia
11:30-12:00	Tea &amp; Coffee
12:00-1:00	Keynote speaker: Meg Barker – Gendered understandings of consent in 50 Shades of Grey and on the BDSM blogosphere (Flitcroft)
1:00-2:00	Lunch
2:00	Conference End - See you next year!

Notes