

QMIP Conference 2015

2-4 September 2015, Anglia Ruskin University

Wednesday 2 September

	LAB 002	LAB 006	LAB 109 1 st Floor
08:30	Registration open in Lord Ashcroft Reception
09:30- 12:30		3403 Workshop How to conduct a Narrative Oriented Inquiry in Psychology Ho Law, University of East London	3370 Workshop Beneficial cross-overs? Reflecting on the impact of conducting emotionally demanding research and what we might learn from considering qualitative research as semi-therapeutic Marta Wanat, Oxford University
12:30 - 13:15	Lunch in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
13:20 – 13:30	Welcome & Introduction
13:30 – 14:30	Keynote Presentation Can't live with it, can't live without it ? Reflections on qualitative psychology's ambivalent relationship with realism Professor Carla Willig, City University, London
14:35 – 14:55	3366 Oral Presentation "Brother and Sisterly Love": Exploring the Experience of Sibling Aggression Natalie Harrison, University of Central Lancashire	3521 Five minute challenge Is the focus group dead? Nicola Clarke, Loughborough University 3404 Five minute challenge	3490 Oral Presentation A grounded-theory exploration of the experience in the workplace, of not belonging, and its impact on psychological well-being Lee Waller, Ashridge Business School
14:55 – 15:15	3369 Oral Presentation The Experience of Being the Parent of an	"Who does she think she is, eh?": Using discursive psychology to demonstrate the collaborative nature of teasing, and how it can enhance	3520 Oral Presentation Qualitative undergraduate dissertation

	Adolescent with Clinical Depression: A qualitative, longitudinal study Emily Stapley, University College London and the Anna Freud Centre	cohesion in student groups. Gillian Hendry, University of Strathclyde 3335 Five minute challenge Comparing two IPA interviewers Peter Reddy, Aston University 3296 Five minute challenge Mutual changing of client and therapist inner self-states throughout psychotherapy: from qualitative to quantitative and back Nehama HaCohen, Bar-Ilan University, Israel 3401 Pecha Kucha Frozen Hope: The Phenomenological Experience of Embryo Adoption Tamara Anderson, Biola University 3361 Pecha Kucha Lost in Loss: Reflecting on a Lived Research Experience of Grief, Mind, and Body Fiona Stirling, University of Abertay	supervision in psychology: Current practice, needs and support for supervisors Alasdair Gordon-Finlayson, Teeside University
15:15 – 15:35	Refreshment Break & Poster Session Lunch in Corporate Suite 1st Floor
15:35 – 15:55	3356 Oral Presentation The lifeworld – enriching qualitative evidence Peter Ashworth., Sheffield Hallam University - Emeritus	3392 Symposium Politics and Identity Convenor Simon Goodman, Coventry University	3266 Workshop Researching meanings, perceptions or constructions using story completion: An introductory workshop Virginia Braun, University of the West of England
15:55 – 16:15	3312 Oral Presentation Descriptive Phenomenological Analysis (DPA) and Practice-Based Research: An Engagement with	3393 Paper 1 ‘The enemy within’?: Sexual identity and sexual politics in readers’ responses to the notion of

	Amadeo Giorgi's Method Janet Banfield, Hertford College	lesbianism as a positive choice Adam Jowett, Coventry University
16:15 – 16:35	3372 Oral Presentation Pushing at the boundaries of qualitative research: the emergence and development of qualitative mixed methods innovation Deborah Rodriguez, Middlesex University	3394 Paper 2 PSHE policy language through the lens of LGBTQ psychology Lynne Potter, Coventry University
16:35 – 16:55	3286 Oral Presentation "It's not just about the patient, it's the families too": End-of-life care in the home environment Joanna Brooks, University of Huddersfield	3395 Paper 3 Constructing and resisting benefit claimant identities in the televised discussions about 'Benefits Street' Simon Goodman, Coventry University
16:55 – 17:15	3264 Oral Presentation Unexpected Answers to Straightforward Questions: Results from a Qualitative Study Dave Woycheshin. Department of National Defence, Canada	3396 Paper 4 Comrade Pet: Negotiating working class and gender identity amongst women members of the Socialist Worker's Party Su Jones, Coventry University
17:15 – 17:35	3279 Oral Presentation How can conversation analysis be used to understand online communication? Joanne Meredith, University of Salford	3397 Brazilian identity, politics and the 2014 World Cup: Collective shame as the background to accounts of national, political and social problems Gavin Sullivan, Coventry University
17:35 – 17:55	3313 Oral Presentation Meddling with (Experimental) Methods Janet Banfield, Hertford College
18:00	Drinks reception in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor Scenography as Research performance by Hannah Gravestock

Thursday 3 September

	LAB 002	LAB 006	LAB 109 1 st Floor
08:30	Registration open in Lord Ashcroft Reception
09:00 – 09:20	REF2014 Panel Discussion Panellists: Sarah Riley Paul Flowers Nigel King Abigail Locke Pete Branney	3375 Symposium Pluralism in Qualitative Research: emerging theory or incompatible differences? Convenor: Nollaig Frost, Middlesex University	3382 Oral Presentation How Much Personal is Too Personal in Phenomenological Research? Agne Matulaite, Vilnius University
09:20 – 09:40		3376 Paper 1: Pluralism in Qualitative Research: methodological prospects and challenges Nollaig Frost, Middlesex University	3294 Oral Presentation My experience of involving people with mental health illnesses on a Research Advisory Panel Nicole Burchett, Cardiff Metropolitan University
09:40 – 10:00		3377 Paper 2: On Pragmatism, Paradigms and Pluralistic Qualitative Research Ross Neville, University of Birmingham	3298 Oral Presentation A Best Practices Approach to Guide (Not Stifle) Qualitative Inquiry Margaret Roller, Independent Consultant
10:00 – 10:20		3378 Paper 3: A methodological reflection on the application of qualitative pluralistic research Deborah Rodriguez, Middlesex University	3281 Oral Presentation The experience of supervising clinically relevant research using Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA): what sort of interpretation is OK? Sheila Bonas, University of Leicester
10:20 – 10:40		3379 Paper 4: Implementing a pluralistic approach to research the experiences of adults with autism spectrum conditions Frauke Elichhoff, Middlesex University	3358 Oral Presentation Identity Experiences of Living with HIV among Latin American Gay and Bisexual Men in the UK Rusi Jaspal, De Montfort University
10:40 – 11:00	Refreshment break in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor

11:10 – 12:10	Keynote presentation Delivering impact through qualitative methods: Gay men and HIV testing Professor Paul Flowers, Glasgow Caledonian University
12:10 – 13:10	Lunch in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
12:30 – 13:00		Qualitative Methods in Psychology Section AGM
13:10- 13:30	Symposium 3269	Symposium 3323	Workshop Teaching Thematic Analysis on undergrad courses Cath Sullivan
13:30- 13:50	Looking back and thinking forward on Neoliberalism: Historical and contemporary analyses of responsibility, personal hygiene and intimate relationships	Visual methods in qualitative research: four case studies of what happens when you do more than a semi-structured interview.
13:50 – 14:10	Convenor: Sarah Riley, Aberystwyth University	Siobhan Hugh-Jones, University of Leeds
14:10 – 14:30		3324 Paper 1
14:30 – 14:50	3270 Paper 1 Regimes of hygiene Peter Branney, Leeds Beckett University	Low income men as self-researchers: can photo-elicitation promote engagement, visibility and meaning-making? Mike Jestico, University of Leeds
	3271 Paper 2 Rotten teeth, rotten parents or rotten society?: UK press coverage of child tooth decay Adam Jowett, Coventry University	3325 Paper 2 Photo-elicitation interviewing with young adults – what does it tell us about insight, power, and skill? Raginie Duara, University of Leeds
	3272 Paper 3 ‘Mothers, fathers and parents’: Definitions and gender roles amongst stay-at-home-fathers Abigail Locke, Huddersfield University	3326 Paper 3 “I never felt as though like I looked like a cancer patient but looking at those photos like I do look pretty rough”: the revealing and concealing potential of photo-elicitation with young people with cancer. Simon Pini, St James Hospital, Leeds
	3273 Paper 4 Understanding rural older women’s sexual health needs within the context of neoliberal economies that offer a consumerist perspective on sexuality Sarah Riley, Aberystwyth University	3327 Paper 4 Video-recording in one-to-one qualitative interviews: a two-sided window? Jihane Ghorayeb, University of Leeds

14:50-15:20	Refreshment Break & Poster session & QMiP Citations for Excellence, Awarded by Professor Jamie Hacker Hughes, BPS President in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
15:20 – 15:40	3288 Oral Presentation Using an asset based approach to explore the benefits of involvement in community-centred initiatives Joanna Brooks, University of Huddersfield	Symposium 3337 A qualitatively different view of relationships and parenting across the lifespan Convenor: Jenny Mercer, Cardiff Metropolitan University	3254 Oral Presentation Analysing story completion data using story mapping techniques: The example of stories of male body hair removal Victoria Clarke, University of the West of England
15:40 – 16:00	3505 Oral Presentation Participatory methods to inform the design of an Internet-based pain management programme for children with chronic pain and their parents. Angeline Traynor, National University of Ireland	3338 Paper 1 An exploration of adolescents' attitudes towards unprotected sex and teenage pregnancy Honor Young, Cardiff Metropolitan University 3339 Paper 2 Identifying and exploring the subject positions of young fathers Jenny Mercer, Cardiff Metropolitan University	3498 Oral Presentation Marital Expectations of Never Married Women and Men in Urban India Sheila Clements, IIT Bombay
16:00 – 16:20	3336 Oral Presentation The OAYSES intergenerational project: Using mixed methods to explore social change Katie Wright-Bevans, Keele University	3340 Paper 3 Parenting and childhood in a culture of fear Leanne Etheridge, Cardiff Metropolitan University	3352 Oral Presentation “Half the man I was”: Emasculation and estrangement amongst men living with systemic lupus erythematosus. Iain Williamson, De Montfort University
16:20 – 16:40	3518 Oral Presentation Taking Sides, Acronyms and Laughing: How the analysis of discursive alignment and positioning in interviews can facilitate transparency in the research process. Neil Cooper, University of East Anglia	3341 Paper 4 Women who choose not to have children Rose O'Driscoll, Cardiff Metropolitan University	3485 Oral Presentation Reinventing the female body-self; transcending gender roles and bodily investment in women's boxing embodiment Helen Owton, The Open University
19:30	QMIP Conference Dinner at Cambridge City Hotel Followed by entertainment

Friday 4 September

	LAB 002	LAB 006	LAB 109 1 st Floor
08:30	Registration in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
09:00 – 09:20		3374 Oral Presentation Symbiosis or Sporting Tool? A Qualitative Study of the Horse-Rider Relationship in Elite Equestrian Sport Rachel Hogg, Charles Stuart University	3371 Oral Presentation Integrating photographs with phenomenologically oriented semi-structured interviews: challenges and opportunities Kerry Quincey, De Montfort University
09:20 – 09:40		3510 Oral Presentation “You’re Never Making Just One Decision”: Exploring the lived experiences of ambulance Emergency Operations Centre personnel Astrid Coxon, University of East Anglia
09:40 – 10:00		3315 Oral Presentation Justifying civilian casualties in the Gaza conflict Mick Finlay, Anglia Ruskin University	3512 Oral Presentation Blow-Up Body Mapping: exploring the potentials of art and design methods in qualitative psychological research Matthew Wood, Newcastle University
10:00 – 10:20	Refreshment Break in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
10:20 – 11:20	Plenary Peter Branney and Anna Madill
11:20 – 11:40	3402 Oral Presentation ‘I can’t work out what am feeling’: The case for a phenomenological account of alexithymia Lymarie Rodriguez-Morales, Birkbeck University of London	3367 Oral Presentation “I don’t know when it switched from mature to immature”: using case study data about alcohol use to understand adolescent-adult transitions Dominic Conroy, Birkbeck University of London	3287 Oral Presentation Exploring mental health nurses’ understandings of the spiritual needs of service users Ruth Brown, University of Huddersfield

11:40-12:00	3459 Oral Presentation An exploration of the experiences, stressors, emotions and coping mechanisms of people living with an ileostomy Johanna Spiers, Birkbeck University of London	3359 Oral Presentation Counselling for Diabetes: A single case-study Kate Smith, Abertay University	3126 Oral Presentation 'Hear my voice': an interpretative phenomenological analysis of humanistic therapists' lived experience of traumatic bereavement and its impact on their professional development and practice. Jeanne Broadbent, University Of Chester
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch in Corporate Suite 1 st Floor
13:00 – 13:20	3300 Oral Presentation Transition to motherhood within the context of Inflammatory Bowel Disease Jihane Ghorayeb, University of Leeds	3297 Oral Presentation The lifeline interview technique: its effectiveness in the exploration of processes Moira Cachia, University of West London	3331 Oral Presentation Using theory-led thematic analysis to analyse psychotherapy transcripts Rachel Wilcox, University of the West of England
13:20 – 13:40	3311 Oral Presentation Hard to reach but not hard to research? Qualitative methods in engaging under-represented families in educational research Suzanne Day, University of Central Lancashire	3316 Oral Presentation Understanding and Supporting Young Adults through 'Quarterlife Crisis' Raginie Duara, University of Leeds	3365 Oral Presentation An exploration of a prison-based animal programme with male offenders Jenny Mercer, Cardiff Metropolitan University
13:50 – 14:50	Keynote Presentation In and out of the qualitative box: reflecting backwards, sideways and forwards from/on the field of qualitative researching Associate Professor Virginia Braun, University of Auckland
15:00	Conference Close

Posters:

QMIP01 - Making Sense of a Sudden Personal Transformation (SPT): A Highly Reflexive Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA)

India Amos, University of Manchester

QMIP02 - Compassion, commitment and commodification: Exploring accounts of volunteering participation amongst forty British students.

Katie Bell, DeMontfort University

QMIP03 - A qualitative study to explore which factors effect flu vaccine uptake among mothers in the London borough of Hackney, East London.

Ilham Khan, Middlesex University

QMIP04 - Women's Narratives of Crisis and Change: Transitioning from Infertility to Pregnancy

Nehama HaCohen, Bar-Ilan University

QMIP05 - How Sensory Experiences affect Adolescents with an Autistic Spectrum Condition within a Classroom at School

Fiona Howe, Anglia Ruskin University

QMIP06 - "You sort of have a stranger with you", an Interpretative Phenomenological Exploration of Identity in People with Acquired Brain Injury.

Benjamin Lond, DeMontfort University

QMIP07 - Body Metaphors in the Narratives of Young Adults – Qualitative Study

Ewa Mlozniak, University of Warsaw

QMIP08 - 'Included in a different world': A social constructivist grounded theory study investigating the experiences and motivations of older technology users

David Nevard, University of East Anglia

QMIP09 - Zambian Women's Understanding of Sexual Harassment in the Workplace; An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA)

Mwiza Nyasa, Anglia Ruskin University

QMIP10 - Video representation as literature review

Helen Owton, The Open University

QMIP11 - Negotiating an epistemological position within narrative inquiry research: The story so far from a Trainee Clinical Psychologist

Zara Rahemtulla, University of Essex

QMIP12 - "A bad day in recovery beats any day in addiction": A thematic analysis of the pathway from substance addiction to flourishing in recovery

Iain Williamson, De Montfort University